

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

PALESTINE, TEX.Foodstuffs—Protection of—Licensing of Establishments Where Produced or Sold. (Ord. Aug. 10, 1915.)

SECTION 1. By food products, as used in this ordinance, is meant any substance, whether solid or liquid, and whether of animal or vegetable origin, intended to be used or commonly used as food or drink for human beings. By food-products establishments, as used in this ordinance, is meant any place or establishment occupied, used, or maintained for the purpose of selling, offering for sale, exposing for sale, or keeping with the intention of selling, any food products such as ice factories, slaughterhouses, meat markets, butcher shops, fish markets, dairies, bakeries, confectioneries, ice-cream factories and parlors, cold-storage establishments, barns, or other places for handling and preparing for sale of dairy products, or cooked or prepared foodstuffs; hotels, restaurants, grocery stores, fruit markets, vegetable markets, vegetable and fruit venders peddling by wagon or otherwise, soda fountains, bottling works, saloons, bar-rooms, breweries, slaughter pens, and all businesses handling or having to do with foodstuffs. And also every room used for the purpose of any such business in the keeping, storing, manufacturing, preparing, handling, distributing, selling, serving, or offering for sale any meat, fish, or slaughtered poultry, meat products, bread, cakes, pastry, confectionery, milk, butter, or other dairy products; fruit, vegetables, groceries, or other foodstuffs, whether raw or cooked or otherwise prepared, or any liquid intended as food or drink for human beings, whether of an alcoholic or nonalcoholic nature; and also all places and premises connecting with any such rooms.

SEC. 2. No person, firm, or corporation shall establish, maintain, or operate any food-products establishment within the corporate limits of the city of Palestine, or sell or offer for sale its products within said city without first having obtained a license or permit as hereinafter required.

SEC. 3. Any person, firm, or corporation desiring a license to establish, maintain, or operate a food products establishment or to sell or offer for sale its products shall make written application to the city food inspector, stating the name and the residence of the applicant, if an individual, or all the members of the firm, if a partnership, or the name and residences of the applicants, principal officers, if the applicant is a corporation; also the location and description of the premises where such food products establishment is to be conducted. The city food inspector shall then make, or cause to be made, an investigation of the premises named and described in said application for the purpose of determining the fitness and suitability of such premises for a food products establishment from a sanitary standpoint. The city food inspector shall then transmit to the superintendent of police and public safety, the said application, together with his recommendation for or against the issuance of a license. If the superintendent of police and public safety shall be satisfied that the premises where the food products establishment is to be located are proper and suitable from a sanitary standpoint, he shall cause to be issued a license or permit in accordance with such application. All such licenses or permits shall be numbered consecutively and shall be in form prescribed by the city food inspector.

SEC. 4. Every such applicant upon compliance with the aforesaid requirements and the payment in advance to the city secretary the sum of $1 semi-annually and a proportionate amount if for less than six months shall receive a license or permit under the corporate seal signed by the mayor and attested by the city secretary which shall authorize the applicant to establish, maintain, or operate a food products establishment at the place therein designated. Such licenses or permits shall expire on the first days of January and July of each year. Proof must be furnished by the applicant to the superintendent of police and public safety that said applicant is not liable for a license fee and had not established, maintained, or operated a food products establishment without a license prior to the date fixed in his application.

SEC. 5. Every person, firm, or corporation licensed in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance shall immediately post said license or permit or cause it to be posted in a conspicuous place within the premises where such food products establishment is thereby authorized to be established, maintained, or operated. Every vehicle used to sell or deliver any such food products shall have attached to it in a conspicuous place or painted thereon the number of the owner's license or permit.

SEC. 6. That it shall be unlawful for the owner, manager, or agent of any food products establishment to sell or permit to be sold, or offer for sale any food products of any kind which are exposed to the air without having the same screened and protected from flies, and any person violating the terms thereof subjects himself to the revocation of his license or permit and shall be punished as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 7. The superintendent of police and public safety shall recommend to the city council the revocation of any permit or license issued under the terms of this ordinance whenever it shall appear to his satisfaction from the recommendation of the city food inspector, or otherwise, that the licensee is not conducting his establishment in a sanitary manner or has violated the provisions of the laws of the State of Texas or the ordinances of the city of Palestine, Tex., or the rules and regulations prescribed by said city food inspector relating to the carrying on of the business named in the license, and the city council may thereupon revoke such permit or license.

SEC. 8. Any person, firm, or corporation who shall establish, maintain, or operate a food products establishment or sell or offer for sale in the city the products of such establishment without first obtaining the license herein provided for, or shall fail to keep such license posted as herein provided or shall continue to conduct or operate such establishment after the revocation of his license or permit or otherwise violate this ordinance shall be punished by fine not less than $25 nor more than $200, and every day any such establishment is maintained or operated without such license shall be a separate offense. In case a corporation shall establish, maintain, or operate a food products establishment without first obtaining such license, or shall fail to keep such license posted as herein provided for, or shall continue to conduct such establishment after its license or permit is revoked, any officer, agent, or employee of such corporation conducting said establishment or selling or offering for sale its products shall be liable to such punishment.

PEEKSKILL, N. Y.

Glanders in Horses—Notification of Cases. Stables—Cleaning and Disinfection. (Ord. Oct. 22, 1915.)

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of every veterinary, owner, or driver of any horse in the village of Peekskill, suffering from the disease known as glanders, to immediately report such condition to the local health officer.

SEC. 2. The owner or occupant of any blacksmith shop, barn, shed, and stable, or other place used for the keep or stabling of horses in the village of Peekskill, shall, as often as required by the local health officer, thoroughly cleanse and disinfect such places with an approved disinfectant and in such manner as